the 1990s, the number of people in the UK who are aged 65 and over has increased by 1.5 million, and the number of people aged 75 and over has increased by 1 million (Office of National Statistics 1999). The number of people aged 85 and over has increased by 300,000 in the same period.

There is a growing awareness of the need to address the needs of the ageing population. The Department of Health (1999) has published a strategy for ageing, which sets out the government's commitment to improve the lives of older people. The strategy is based on three main principles: (1) to ensure that older people have the opportunity to live independently and actively; (2) to ensure that older people have access to the services and support they need; and (3) to ensure that older people are treated with respect and dignity.

The strategy is based on the following assumptions: (1) that older people are a valuable resource; (2) that older people have the right to live independently and actively; (3) that older people have the right to access the services and support they need; and (4) that older people should be treated with respect and dignity. The strategy is based on the following principles: (1) to ensure that older people have the opportunity to live independently and actively; (2) to ensure that older people have access to the services and support they need; and (3) to ensure that older people are treated with respect and dignity.

FOREWORD

If this yearbook preserves the memories which are pleasantly reminiscent of the days which we have spent in high school and serves as a noteworthy precedent

for subsequent classes and an honor to our alma mater, we shall have achieved our purpose.

There's a breathless hush on the field to-night:
Goal to make and the match to win—
A bumping play to the center's right,
Seconds to go and nerves worn thin.

honoring

HOSE who have ever had our best interests in mind during our twelve years of education, attempting all the while to provide us with life's needs, to enrich our opportunities and to shelter us from undue hardships so that our youth might be more lasting and happy—

OUR PARENTS

And it's not for the sake of a ribboned coat,
Or the selfish hope of a season's fame,
But his captain's hand on his shoulder smote:
"Play up! play up! and play the game!"

CROWN POINT HIGH SCHOOL

This is the word that year by year,
While in her place the school is set
Every one of her sons must hear,
And none that hears it dare forget.

CLASSES

Seniors:

Fleeting and permanent elements exist in every phase of our experience; in lives of individuals, and in the history of schools. Crown Point High has striven to inspire you to the ideals, attitudes, and learning that prepare you for life. Eagerly interested, the teachers, principal, and superintendent have aided and enjoyed you seeking the lasting values of an education. You have kept the faith of the task set before you; you have finished your courses; you have graduated. As you leave the portals of your Alma Mater, may you vow to learn continually and place Your Class on the honor roll of success!

—Mr. Erwin,
Principal

CLASS HISTORY

It was a tense moment. The whistle blew! The loyal support of everyone was necessary for a successful game. Our captain was Betty Griesel, with Bob Welsh, Vella Lee Page, Bob Sykora, and June Thompson holding outstanding positions on the team. The team wore black and gold uniforms and the most loyal class members pinned yellow roses to their lapels and dresses occasionally. The team set forth its motto in black and gold letters at the end of the hall: "Success is by acting not wishing". Now and then we all glanced in its direction hoping to glean enough courage from it to last the four quarters of our game.

After an exciting beginning, the officials called time, to announce a "Big Sister" party sponsored by the Seniors at the Fair Grounds. The game was resumed until the moment for electing the Carnival King and Queen. We knew that our dark-haired Ferne Purdy, and redheaded hero, Jim Wagner, would offer real competition and were not surprised at their victory. The event which followed closely was the operetta, "Singer of Naples", leads being played by June Thompson and Gladys Liffick. A large number from our group proved their mettle in this first quarter by their performances in major sports.

Toward the end of the first quarter, we sponsored a dance on March 23, after which officials Seamonson, Foster, Jones and Kirkpatrick informed us we had $22.22. The cheer leaders gave a rising yell for the "Freshies" and we were ready for the sophomore quarter.

Three Sophomore captains, Bob Youkey, Dorothy Platt, and Ferne Purdy, began when the calendar read 1935-1936. Vella Lee Page and Becky Lamson became our cheer leaders. Again we favored a member, Dorothy Platt, with the Carnival Queenship. Just before the timekeepers called the half, the peppy Sophomores sponsored a show, which boosted our funds to $75 at the end of the first half.

1936-1937! Beginning the third quarter! Yessir! This was the hardest battle of the game; but we played fairly and came through with colors flying after we put our trust in the guidance of Ferne Purdy, Kenny Knight, and Jim Wagner. We decided to hold up the game long enough in November to "Swing It" at our sweater hop. This month also gave distinction to Doris Kaldahl in the Legion Oratorical Contest and to Carol Jean Martin in Debate and the cast of "The Brat".

Youkey, Steiner, Knight, Wagner, Golden, Brooks, Welsh, and Nassau kept the class in front in the pigskin parade, while Golden, Welsh, and Wagner starred on the hardwood. Nor were we without girl athletes! Purdy, Lamson, Griesel, Seberger, Flathau topped the list. Our musicians kept pace in band and choral work.

The game proceeded slowly until we were assured that the people of Crown Point were very much interested in our success, as their attendance at the Junior Class play "Happy Go Lucky" bore witness. On October 31, our team added to its enviable reputation by electing Bob Youkey and Marie Flathau to the throne.

The grand finale came in our beautiful Junior-Senior Banquet. The resourcefulness of the decorating committee will always be remembered, as we won't forget the canopy of rainbow-colored streamers, the lattice woven with crab-apple branches, and the rainbow at the horizon's rim.

The lovely decorations of our banquet graced the Senior Baccalaureate, and we felt a sense of satisfaction with our work in the third quarter.

1937-1938. Not must time left! We launched a well-planned attack under the captaincy of Knight, Flathau, and Adkins but were forced to call for time in order to watch Steiner, Wagner, Carlson, Welsh, the Kouders, Nassau, Knight, Fitch, and Golden prove their worth on the gridiron.

In October, Kenny Knight reached the Kingship. After the Carnival we were well represented in Journalism, Intramurals, and Varsity Basketball. Twelve of our leaders were chosen for the all school team—the National Honor Society. As a thrilling climax the team worked together to make successful productions of their Yearbook and the mystery drama "The 13th Chair".

During these four quarters, the constant companionship and fellowship together gave us much that we value highly and will not soon forget. Our final days impressed us with our well-chosen motto: "Success is by acting, not wishing!"

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

- TOM ADKINS: President of the North Shore Yacht Club.
- LAWRENCE BASTIANI: Owner of an Italian restaurant, famous for its spaghetti.
- JERRY BLACK: At age 30, doing some high flying around the world!
- BILL BLANKENSHIP: Chief sweeper in Empire State Building.
- ANNE BOCHUS: Still using our main fruit, "The Big Apple" and riding high by trucking.
- GEORGE BROOKS: (Butterball-Brooks) inspiration to boys in training.
- ORRIN BURGE: Successor to tobacco auctioneer on the Lucky Strike Hit Parade.
- ALLEN CARLSON: King of a midget village in South Africa.
- JACK CONNELLY: With his closest companion, the trumpet, successor to Horace Heidt.
- MARJORIE DAVIDSON: The model of all models.
- GRANT DILLABAUGH: Strong man of Ringling Brothers Circus.
- MERLE DILLE: Living up to his last name, only it begins with an S.
- VELMA FALKE and RUTH KELSEY: Taking the temperatures of good looking male patients. Ah! These nurses.
- ELEANOR FIEGLE, MARY HAZLETT and MARY KIEFER: Each wants to be a secretary.
- FRANKLIN FITCH: Always throwing a light on the subject of being an electrician.
- MARIE FLATHAU: "Stubby or not Stubby", that is the question.
- LUCILLE FOX: A movie star. (Could it be competition with Zazu Pitts?)
- JANE GLOVER: We thought and thought. Come, come, Jane, is it a nurse???
- BOB GOLDEN: Very successful business man, with plenty of "Gold" en stuff.
- ROMAN GOSZEWSKI: Romeo, the great Shakespearean actor, is outstanding in the role ofHamlet.
- MARY GRAYSON: She has charmed so many senior boys that she is now a professional snake charmer.
- BETTY GRIESEL: A well-known journalist—We'll be journalizing you.
- CORA MAE HANFORD: Has a job cementing the roads in the Fair Grounds! (You wouldn't like to walk home in the mud either)
- JOHN HAYDEN: Year 1945. Still trying to figure out what to be.
- BILL HOFFERBER: Captain of the Deck Washers for the U. S. Navy
- DORIS KALDAHL: She claims she wants to work in an office. But there's Chuck???
- JOHN KARN: Still thinking Studebaker's the best car, and still very smart.
- KENNY KNIGHT: Blonde version of Hollywood's Robert Taylor.
- RUTH KLINEFELTER: An artist owning a black V-8 Coupe. I think he comes from Lowell.
- WILBUR KORS: Rattling away on the typewriter, but not on absent lists.
- BOB KOUDER: He is a professional hitch-hiker because he likes "trumping" around.
- CHUCK KOUDER: He is out proving he "ken" do anything.
- VIOLET KRAPP: A good, good, bookkeeper. Correct adding to you.
- WILLIAM KRETCHMAR, WILBUR WIRTZ, and HARRY WAGON-BLAST: Future Farmers and good ones.

KARL KROST: Hitting all the high spots in Chicago or New York about 7 nights a week. Only don't let it hit you down Karl.

WILBUR KRUGER: Tall man of a circus.

BECKY LAMSON: A gym teacher, yeh g-y-m not K-e-n.

MARJORIE LETZ: A teacher in a large high school. A teacher of what???? Ah! That's his story.

CAROL JEAN MARTIN: Working for service and enjoying it. Now, don't get it wrong; it's Social Service Work.

MARY McDANELLS: She hardly talks, but could she be another Movie Star???

HAROLD MARTINEK: In the year 1943, he is still busy trying to keep track of brother Frank.

MARIE MIDDLETON: Still LUKE warm for TURNER.

LOIS MORTON: LOIS is still debating BUT—with a husband.

NORMA MUSSER: Norma is now "Hack" (in) in a hospital. She's a NURSE.

ELLEN ROFFMANN and ERMA NERGE: Are making themselves targets for paper wads by teaching in one room schools.

CHUCK NASSAU: An artist of all arts. Maybe Doris is the Model???

VIVIAN NIELSEN: Female version of Eddie Cantor, (you know the eye rolling.)

LEONA NOW VISKIE: Looks as though she'll have to be an air hostess.

HERB PATZ: A G-Man.....(Garbage Collector).

BEATRICE PFAFF: Holdin' hands in a hospital. (She's taking the patient's temperature.)

BOB PLACE: Still talks Turkey.

WARREN PIERCE: Still trying to find the right girl.

DOROTHY PLATT: Performing an operation in a large Chicago hospital. She's doing a lot of cuttin' up.

CECIL PORCH: Owning his own "no work to do" farm and lots of little chickens. Yes, I said CHICKENS.

FERNE PURDY: Owning a beauty shop and manicuring a handsome man's nails. Nice work if you can get it.

ROBERT ROFFMANN: Still a woman hater at age of 40. My! My! and such curly hair.

GEORGE ROSS: He will climb to great heights as a flag pole sitter.

DAVID RUSSELL: A well-known pharmacist.

LAVERNE SCHULTZ: In 10 years from now, she is still a modeler of coats.

RUTH SEBERGER: Making a target of herself for paper wads in Kindergarten.

BOB STEUER: "The Perfect Gentleman."

JUNIOR STEINER: A dashing football hero at Notre Dame.

MILFORD STILLSON: Living up to his name. A Still son.

JACK STOLBERG: The last of the "Southern Gentlemen".

JOHANNA VAN DER MOLEN: "The quiet type", she never told us what she wanted to be. Aw.

JIM WAGNER: A football coach, but Ferne is figuring the plays.

DONALD WATT: Is in Hollywood now, giving Arthur Treacher, the English butler, a bit of stiff competition. Eh Watt???

MARY WEBER: "The Future Garbo."

HAROLD WEILER: Who knows? Could Pauline be his future?

BOB WELSH: Crooning to, well—she lives on East Joliet Street and is the oldest daughter. Hum.

ILA WEMPLE: Doing the Indiana Hop for a living. Good hopping to you Ila.

BOB YOUKEY: The Mayor of our fair city, CROWN POINT!

CLASS WILL

WE, the senior class, having completed our work at Crown Point High School are graduating, some by credits and some by request, being sound and stable, both in mind and in body, make this our last will and testament. We hereby leave our most cherished memories and idiosyncrasies to each and all.

I, Tom Adkins, will my ability to rob the cradle to Ed. Hoffman, hoping he has the same success that I had.

I, Lawrence Bastiani, will my canary-like singing voice to Bill Carroll, who can put a song well on the road to ruin.

I, Gerald Black, will my handsome features and fetching ways to Jack Sabin.

I, Bill Blankenship, will my ability to get out of high school in not less than five years, or more than ten years to Billy Gullie.

We, Anne Bochus and Cora Haniford, will our dancing feet to Betty Kindberg and Mary Kolling.

I, George Brooks, will my much-interrupted athletic career to Jim Haniford.

I, Orrin Burge, will my shyness to LaVerne Hack, who could use some.

I, Allen Carlson, will my upright blonde hair to Jack Tadman.

I, Jack Connelly, will my ability to play a trumpet to William Jamieson.

I, Marjorie Davison, will my fashion plate figure to Ileen Fischer.

I, Grant Dillabaugh, will my manly physique to Charles Lewis.

I, Merl Dille, will my ability to do the "worm dance" (The Big Apple) to Clifford McElwee.

I, Velma Falke, will a small comb to Kenneth Holmquist so he can keep his part in life.

I, Eleanor Fiegle, will my flirting eyes to Marjorie Mitch.

I, Marie Flathau, will my every-night dates to Margaret Stillson.

I, Franklin Fitch, will my ability to hitch-hike home to Chuck Clark.

I, Lucille Fox, will my ability to make "breaks" to Martha Young.

I, Jane Glover, will a manicuring set to John Hard so that he can paint his finger nails for another Hallowe'en party.

I, Bob Golden, will my private secretary, Velda Seramur, to the person who writes the sports articles for the "Inklings" next year.

I, Roman Goszewski, will my ability to make sour puns and wisecracks to Dick LaCroix.

I, Mary Grayson, will my brother, Bob, to Wanda Anderson. (Take good care of him, Wanda, he needs watching.)

I, Betty Griesel, will my regular Friday night attendance to the show to Mary Ellen Pettit.

I, John Hayden, will my mopiness to Dick Nichols, who is following in my footsteps.

I, Mary Hazlett, will my gift of gab to Charlotte Kaiser.

I, Bill Hofferber, will my good attendance at school (or is it elsewhere?) to Hermie Knesek.

I, Doris Kaldahl, will my high grades to Mary Ziese.

I, Ruth Kelsey, will all my good times to Henrietta Krieter.

I, Kenneth Knight, will my noledge of sollid geometree to anyone hoo can youse it. (Or doo yoo think thay could youse mi spelling beter?)

I, Mary Kiefer, will my wear-ever smile to John Beck.

I, Ruth Klinefelter, will my heart-interest in Lowell to Enie Rouhselang—just another to add to her collection of out-of-town boy friends.

I, Wilbur Kors, will my ability to write left-handed to Arla Johnson.

We, Bob and Chuck Kouder, will Betty Trump and Gladys Kinne to Fred Mecklenberg—You'll watch them for us, won't you, Fred?

I, Violet Krapf, will my make-up kit to Frances Kettering.

I, William Kretchmar, will my fiery temper to Dick Graper.

I, Karl Krost, will my ability to argue even after proved wrong to Mr. Ferris.
I, Wilbur Kruger, will half my height to Donna Knight.
I, Becky Lamson, will my fear of health class to Don Casey.
I, Marjorie Letz, will my characteristic of always saying the last word to Bud Griesel.
I, Carol Jean Martin, will my precious giggle to Irene Huseman.
I, Mary McDaniel, will my ability to read a lot of library books to Rosemary Biegel.
I, Harold Martinek, will my studiousness to Albert Zieseness.
I, Marie Middleton, will my change of coiffure to Jane Heinze.
I, Lois Morton, will my shaking knees in speech class to George Carroll.
I, Norma Musser, will my high-speed record in typing to Dick Kammert, who is straining his eyes and nerves in his hunt-and-peck system.
I, Chuck Nassau, will my bicycle to Melvin Crawford, so he and his girl friend won't have to walk while on dates.
I, Irma Nerge, will my talent for playing the accordian and singing, to Rodney Gervais.
I, Vivian Nielsen, will my secret passion for a certain senior boy to Alice Goethal.
I, Leona Nowviskie, will my love for speech class to Bob Batterman.
I, Herbert Patz, will my mischievousness to Edward Metz.
I, Beatrice Pfaff, will my conscientiousness in class to Frances Patton.
I, Warren Pierce, will my traits of character to Wayne Carlson.
I, Robert Place, will my ability for winning the affections of the opposite sex, especially the teachers, to Ted Steger, who already has made a good start.
I, Dorothy Platt, will my string of dates to Lois Woods.
I, Cecil Porch, will my good economics grades to any "A" student.
I, Ferne Purdy, will my honeyed-sweetness to Betty Osborne.
I, Ellen Roffmann, will my position as volley-ball captain to Anna Nassau.
I, Robert Roffmann, will my wavy hair to Dick Bowen.
I, George Ross, will my ability to make long fluent speeches to Arthur Chrisman.
I, David Russell, will my ability to tell jokes to Harry Lewis.
I, La Verne Schultz, will my stubborn disposition to Helen Bruce.
I, Ruth Seberger, will my well-used editor's job to the next editor of the "Bulldog".
I, Bob Steuer, will my quiet manners to Bob Traves.
I, Junior Steiner, will a bottle of "Stacomb" to Paul Farster.
I, Jack Stolberg, will my bright sayings to Beatrice Sellers.
I, Johanna Van Der Molen, will my demureness and timidity to Helen Tennant.
I, James Wagner, wishing to save the school some money, will my last basketball suit to the athletic department.
I, Harry Wagonblast, will my calmness to Alice Whitehead for use in the office.
I, Donald Watt, will my loud chatter to Wilbur Huseman.
I, Mary Weber, will my peppy enthusiasm to Iva Jean Ammerman.
I, Harold Weiler, will my love-seat in the assembly from 12:15 to 1:00 to La Verne King and Mildred Dickens.
I, Bob Welsh, will my fiery enthusiasm for basketball playing to Harvey Knesek.
I, Ila Wemple, will my eyebrow pencil, rouge, and lipstick to Marjorie Golden.
I, Wilbur Wirtz, will a package of wear-ever chewing gum to Clarence Veach to be used in typing class.
I, Bob Youkey, will my first position of playing cornet in the band to anyone who can play a bazooka.

As for our pride, we the seniors, will put it in our pockets and take it with us.

Signed and sealed on this day and year of our Lord, May 1, 1938.

JUNIORS

The Junior Class really got the swing of things this year. They elected the following class officers:

Edward Metz	President	Leone Bruce	Vice President
Charlotte Kaiser	Secretary	Bill Carroll	Treasurer

CLASS SPONSORS:

Mrs. Mracek	Mr. Ferris	Mr. Bowen
Class Colors: Blue and Gold	Class Flower: Lily of the Valley

Motto: "Preparedness is the Keynote to Success"

On November 12, the class presented the play "Green Stockings", a well-played drama under the able direction of Mrs. Spray.

The Juniors have also helped fill their treasury by the selling of reflectors for automobiles. A few people scoffed at the idea, but the Juniors proved the adage that "Where there's a will there's a way."

This class has participated in a variety of school activities and has a number of promising scholars. The rolls of the football, basketball squads, band, debaters, triple trio, and student council boast a good representation of what promises to be an enterprising Senior Class for 1939.

First Row—Mr. Bowen, Hazel Nichols, Mildred Falke, Wanda Hoffman, Ruth Cooper, Gertrude Wehner, Mr. Ferris, William McKnight, Jane Smith, Gladys Kinne, Gladys Spitson, Evelyn Wornhoff, Mrs. Mracek.

SOPHOMORES

The Sophomore Class of 1937-38 started the year by electing their class officers:

Melvin Crawford	President	Donald Casey	Vice President
Anna Nassau	Secretary	Janet Place	Treasurer

SPONSORS:

Miss Jones

Miss Dice

Mr. Reed

At the beginning of the year the Sophomores gave everyone a grand race in the King and Queen Tourney at the Hallowe'en Carnival, placing Janet Place in the Queenship.

In the school's two major sports the Sophomores placed several entries as well as having a good representation in second team basketball.

Music, Debate, and the Student Council claimed a number from this enterprising class.

We wish to commend this class on helping to make our school a place of good fellowship, as well as a place for acquiring knowledge, and to extend them best wishes for 1939.

THE 1938 BULLDOG

Back on September 9, 1937, the Freshman Class started plugging away on the four year stretch,, a class of one hundred strong to keep the "home-fires" burning.

Walter Ringen President Ernest Niemeyer Vice President
Ralph Henderlong .. Secretary-Treasurer

Class Flower: White Carnation Class Colors: Silver and Blue.

Motto: "United We Stand; Divided We Fall".

The Senior girls gave their little sisters a good send-off at the beginning of the year by holding a Big Sister Party, properly initiating the new group into our high school.

New life entered the class from the various country schools, and the group advanced considerably in triumphing over their "growing pains" of last year.

ACTIVITIES OF THE JUNIOR HIGH

GRADE 8

Edris La Croix—President
Mildred Hobson—Sec.-Treas.
Richard Glover—Reporter

The Junior High King and Queen Candidates, Edris La Croix and Charles Shultz, came in close at the contest but competition was too great.

Cheer leaders of the Junior High are Flora Ann Nichols, Carolyn Bunker, and June Buyer. These girls have been staunch supporters of the team at the pep sessions and games.

GRADE 7

Wayne Seegers—President.
Flora Ann Nichols—Sec.-Treas.
Mary Ann Pettibone—Reporter

Out of the Junior High Girls Chorus Group twelve girls have been chosen. This group have sung for the Woman's Club, the Christmas Festival and the Spring Music Festival. They are: Dorothy Falkner, Betty Carroll, Mary Ann Pettibone, Flora Ann Nichols, Mary Ellen Kretschmar, Betty Pardee, June Buyer, Betty La Croix, Viola Wemple, Edris La Croix, Janet Rae Smith, and Mildred Selkow.

The Eighth Grade is ably represented in the Concert Band by Bob Barkley, Betty Pardee, James Knight, Mary Alice Nowviskie, Charles McFadden, Mildred Selkow, Paul Frame, Bob Pierce, Charles Zimmer, John Mosier, and Juanita Reprogle.

Two students achieved the distinction of being on the Honor Roll every six weeks: Dick Glover and Paul Church.

The Class takes this opportunity to thank Miss Dupes and Mr. Cochran for their enthusiasm and co-operation in all our activities.

One of the things that we have found ourselves most enthusiastic about is our exceptional basketball team. We are very proud of our big trophy and hope to keep our heads and make a "grand" showing during our first year in high school.

In the 1937 season the Crown Point Bulldogs played some of the best teams in the Lake County region. The '37 schedule consisted of Valparaiso, Lowell, Lew Wallace, Kentland, Rensselaer, Hobart, Tolleston, Lowell, and Griffith.

VALPARAISO 19

BULLDOGS 0

The Bulldogs' first game was with Valparaiso. Because they lacked in weight and experience, the Bulldogs lost a hard fought game at the expense of losing their quarterback, Bob Youkey, who injured his leg early in the first quarter. The final score stood 19 to 0 in favor of the Vikings of Valpo.

BULLDOGS 0

Friday, September 17, the Crown Point Bulldogs lost their second game of the season to their rivals, the Lowell Red Devils. In the third quarter Lowell got the ball within scoring distance, and took it over for the first touchdown. At the end of the battle the Lowell Red Devils were in the lead with thirteen points. Blocked kicks played an important part in the Bulldogs' defeat.

1938

LEW WALLACE 20

On a very muddy field, the Bulldogs were defeated by a strong team from Lew Wallace. The score at the end of the game showed Crown Point trailing 20 to 0. Lew Wallace won the Gary City Championship.

KENTLAND 0

The Bulldogs journeyed to Kentland to achieve their first victory of the season. In the opening of the game, Crown Point blocked a Kentland punt, and marched the ball down to the pay line, which was the first touchdown of the 1937 season. Another touchdown was achieved in the second quarter. During the third quarter, the Bulldogs pushed the pigskin across for two more touchdowns, and in the final quarter they obtained another 6 points, making the final score 31 to 0 for C. P. H. S.

RENSSELAER 0

The Bulldogs chalked up another win at the hands of a fighting Rensselaer eleven, 7 to 0. In the last quarter of the game Knesek ran the ball around the left side of the line, thirty-five yards to the goal line. Henderlong then plunged through the line for the extra point, thus making the score 7 to 0 in Crown Point's favor. Haniford had a 85 yard run for a touchdown called back because of a holding penalty.

HOBART 27

Crown Point lost their fourth game to an aggressive and big Hobart eleven, 27 to 0; though the Bulldogs were outclassed by the Brickies' style of ball, they stood up well. Youkey saw action in the final two minutes for the first time in five games.

TOLLESTON 0

The Bulldogs turned the tables on a very strong Tolleston team with the score, 7 to 0, resulting from a long run by Knesek, and a successful conversion. This was the third win of the season for the Bulldogs. The fourth quarter goal line stand of the Bulldogs won't be forgotten for a long time.

LOWELL 19

On October 29, Crown Point lost to Lowell due to the fact that the boys failed to block and tackle hard. In the first half, Lowell scored 13 points, and in the last half 6 points, thus making the final score read 19 to 0 in Lowell's favor. Five blocked kicks led to all three Lowell touchdowns. The Bulldogs had more first downs and more yardage gained but errors were too costly.

GRIFFITH 0

The Bulldogs chalked up another win by defeating Griffith in the final game of the season by the score of 33 to 0. During the first quarter the Bulldogs were held scoreless, but they came back in the second quarter and scored for the first touchdown of the ball game. The final quarter started off with another touchdown and in the last minutes of play they scored again.

The Bulldogs have had the best season since the "World War". In the 1937 season they won four games and lost five. Our team was outweighed by each team played, but they were never outfought. Coach Ferris said "that it will be a long time before Crown Point has a team with more courage and fight than the Bulldogs of 1937."

Several Bulldogs received berths on the Little Four Conference Teams. Stiener, King and Youkey received first string positions, while Fitch and Haniford went on the second team list. Knight and Wagner received honorable mention on the list.

Senior boys who received major awards were: Golden, Stiener, Knight, Welsh, Wagner, Nassau, Youkey, Carlson, Fitch, the two Kouders, and the senior manager, Hayden.

Other major awards were made to King, Haniford, Carroll, Henderlong and the two Kneseks.

Boys receiving minor awards were: Buche, Ziese, Keehn, Hoffman, Kelsey, Gervais, Fifield, Shisler, Lewis, Grayson, Holmquist, Bastiani, Robertson, Adkins, Ross, Fiegle, Holloway, Traves, Carlson, Hill and Rudolph, assistant manager.

BASKETBALL SEASON

"A" TEAM

The Bulldogs of Crown Point High ended an unsuccessful season as far as wins and losses are concerned. In the development of the team's moral attitude and sportsmanship, they could not be excelled.

Crown Point won two games and lost eighteen; some of these losses were against much stronger teams of this region, but the Bulldogs always gave them a good fight, never giving up.

One of the most exciting games of the season was the Crown Point vs. Lowell game, which was an overtime contest with Lowell coming out on top.

Another exciting game which should be remembered was the one with Edison. In the last minute, with the score tied, the Bulldogs made a long basket from the middle of the floor; but luck must have been with Edison as they scored five points in the last twenty-seven seconds of the game.

"B" TEAM

The second team had quite a successful year, winning eleven games and losing seven. Two or three of these boys should prove very helpful for next year's team if they continue to develop.

Senior boys who have played their last game for Crown Point High are: Wagner, Golden, Brooks, Youkey, Kretchmar, Welsh, Carlson and Kouder.

BOYS' INTRAMURALS

The boys' intra-mural program has shown much development in the last few years and has helped to promote good sportsmanship in all games and activities throughout the school year.

There are several different events sponsored by the intra-mural program in which a boy may enter, such as ping pong, checkers, baseball, horse shoes and basketball. These different games are played in class competition. All boys playing intra-mural basketball have a chance to be on any varsity team if they have the required ability and meet the coach's approval.

The senior boys' basketball teams won both first and second places in the class standings at the end of the season. These boys will receive a letter for their services on the hardwood. The intra-murals are under the sponsorship of Mr. Lamb. It is hoped this sort of activity will be carried out in future years.

GIRLS' VARSITY

First Row—Mary Grayson, Marie Flatthau, Ferne Purdy, Betty Griesel, Gladys Kinne, Becky Lamson

Second Row—Miss Dice, Mildred Dickens, Ruth Seberger, Jeanette Bruce, Helen Bruce, Leone Bruce, Beatrice Sellers.

This year the Girls' Varsity Basketball team was selected on the girl's ability to play the game, knowledge of the rules, sportsmanship, co-operation with team members, fair play, and courtesy and respect for officials as well as for her team mates.

The following girls have lived up to the standards and have received the honor of being on the 1938 Girls' Varsity. Forwards: Leone Bruce, Gladys Kinne, Becky Lamson, Beatrice Sellers, Betty Griesel, Marie Flatthau. Guards: Mildred Dickens, Jeanette Bruce, Mary Grayson, Helen Bruce, Ferne Purdy, Ruth Seberger.

First Row—Martha Young, Beatrice Sellers, Helen Bruce, Miss Dice, Leone Bruce, Gladys Kinne, Ruth Klinefelter, Wanda Anderson, Mary Ellen Pettit, Mary Grayson, Dorothy Platt.
 Second Row—Donna Knight, Lois Woods, Margaret Stillson, Dorothy Ross, Betty Trump, Ila Mae Heisterberg, Henrietta Krieter, Helen Mikuta, Eleanor Jebens, Irene Rouhselang, Vera Mae Phillips, Cora Mae Haniford, Anne Bochus, Dorothy Tyler.
 Third Row—Jeanette Bruce, Ruth Seberger, Janet Place, Betty Osborne, Johanna Van Der Molen, Kathryn Cannon, Marjorie Golden, Mildred Dickens, Stella Houldson, Virginia Cole, Beatrice Pfaff, Carol Jean Martin, Mary Davis.
 Fifth Row—LaVern King, Elizabeth Jacobs, Ellen Roffmann, Lucille Fox, Pat Pettibone, Jane Heinze, Charlotte Kaiser, Jean Firman, Margaret Miller, Esther Abramson, Evelyn Wornhoff.

This year the Girls' Athletic Association started out in a bigger and better way than ever with Miss Dice as their sponsor. The officers for the first semester were: President, Dorothy Platt; Vice President, Velda Seramur; and Manager, Betty Griesel.

The girls started out with a lot of vim, vigor, and vitality to earn their awards, and with the thought of fostering true sportsmanship in Girls' Athletics.

The second semester started out with Helen Bruce as President; Gladys Kinne, Vice President; Beatrice Sellers, Treasurer; and Leone Bruce, Manager.

After Christmas basketball was on the mind of practically every G. A. A. girl. Twice the Juniors and Seniors battled it out at the Legion building with the snappy Junior team coming out on top both times.

At the end of the basketball season a tournament was held in which each class took part. As usual, the Juniors carried away the honors.

Girls who received their G. A. A. emblems this year after attaining 800 points were: Helen Bruce, Mary Davis, Gladys Kinne, Ferne Purdy, Marie Flathau, Betty Osborne, Helen Mikuta, Dorothy Platt, Leona Nowvickie, Ruth Seberger, LaVern Hack, Pat Pettibone, Marjorie Letz, and Jean Firman.

The highest award a girl can receive is a C. P. sweater given when she has achieved 1500 points. In order to earn this award she must be active and participate in various sports. A girl who has received a C. P. sweater has shown real interest in athletics and has proved herself worthy of this award, which is given in her senior year. The first girls ever to receive sweaters were Betty Griesel and Becky Lamson.

Two dances were given, one in honor of the football squad and one for everyone after the Hobart basketball game.

First Row—Milo Dobes, Jane Heinze, Martha Whitehead, John Mosier, Morgan Porch, Paul Frame, George Drackert, Director Ready.
 Second Row—Kenneth Knight, James Knight, Bob Barkley, Charles Zimmer, Mary Nowviskie, Mildred Hobson, Juanita Repogle, Harry Wagonblast, Mary Ellen Pettit, Bob Grayson.
 Third Row—Emma Niemeyer, Beatrice Sellers, Billy Gullie, George Carroll, Harold Fricke, Cecil Porch, Don Zajicek, Bob Traves, Donald Casey, Pauline Henderson, Harold Wieler.
 Fourth Row—Jack Connelly, Bob Youkey, John Karn, Donald Watt, Burdette Bisselberg, Carol J. Martin, Jean Hershey, Ollie Thompson, Ted Steger, Julius Griesel, Bob Pierce, Berniece Lae.

Many of us do not realize what a wonderfully organized band we have. Last year they entered the State Contest at LaPorte, Indiana, and carried off a total of 176 medals and awards, a mere drop in the bucket to what we hope they have brought back this year. This year has found them spending many hours marching and rehearsing for program and willingly playing for pep sessions, football, and basketball games whenever called upon. They gave a concert on November 7, and another March 18. For the past three years they have played at the Dyer Commencement.

By popular vote of the band, Beatrice Sellers and Dick Nichols are the present student directors. Their able directing has caused much favorable comment and a rise of enthusiasm on the part of the faculty and student body.

We think the band of 1938 is the best Crown Point has ever had and know that they will continue their good work for many years.

The Choral Department consists of the following organizations: The Girls' Triple Trio, Cadet Girls' Ensemble, Boys' Glee Club, Boys' Ensemble, High School Choir of one hundred voices. The outstanding concert during the first semester was the annual choral program of Christmas music given at the Community Building on Sunday afternoon, December 12.

The custom of singing Christmas Carols in the corridors has become a tradition in our schools, and this year this Christmas music was presented with organ accompaniment.

The smaller choral groups appeared before practically every civic and church organization in our city. Rehearsals for these groups are held outside of regular school hours.

During the second semester these groups presented the annual Music Festival program during National Music week in May, a program which included the cantata, "The Wreck of the Hesperus". The chorus will also present the music for the Baccalaureate service.

The student body appreciates the effort the members of the chorus have put forth.

DEBATE

Back Row—Lois Morton, Mrs. Spray, Carol Jean Martin.

The year 1937-38, has seen a very successful debate squad. In spite of the fact that the debaters were all inexperienced, they have built up a strong team. Mrs. Spray is well-satisfied with the work they have done, and since all of the debaters will be back next year, she has hopes of winning the state tournament in '39.

Although the debate teams have not had the backing that the basketball and football teams have had, they have worked hard, strengthening their cases, and getting new facts.

HISTORY OF INKLINGS

Who of you would like to know how our school paper was named? In 1926, the first class in journalism in Crown Point was taught by Miss Charlotte Wheeler, who undertook the responsibility of publishing a bi-monthly paper of school news, written by and for the students. Of course one of the first things to do was to find a name for the paper. Names were submitted by the students, and Minnie Weinberg had an "inkling" that INKLINGS would be the proper title. There are also other reasons for calling it so, "ink" because the paper was printed in ink, and "lings" because it was written by young people. The paper consisted of four sheets, each containing four columns. It was printed by The Calumet Press and Register offices.

Clean Speech Clean Sportsmanship Clean Scholarship Clean Living

The Crown Point High School Hi-Y, although still short of realizing the true purposes of Hi-Y have had a very active year under the leadership of officers Bob Place, Wilbur Kruger, Roman Goszewski, Bill Hofferber, and Ted Steger. Boasting a membership of over sixty boys, the club has sponsored a banquet for the Girl Reserves, a dance, courtesy week, well-known speakers, and Intramural basketball. It is the hope of the majority of the club that from the Peru Conference and the national meet at Berea real practical ideas will be developed by the group to make it a leading club in the state. Part of the club finances has been obtained by maintaining a check room at the various activities held at the Community Building.

Local members attending the state conference at Peru were: Bob Place, Tom Adkins, John Hard, Bill Kretchmar. A good representation met with the Hammond Club in February and attended the district conference in Gary during April.

One of the greatest honors which the school can confer is the election each year from the upper fifteen percent of the class those people which stand highest in scholarship, service, and leadership. Each year this group is feted and the names of the group engraved on the hall plaque as a lasting tribute to those who have done most for their Alma Mater. Those attaining this high distinction this year are: Carol Jean Martin, Tom Adkins, Doris Kaldahl, Kenneth Knight, John Karn, Becky Lamson, Mary Grayson, Ruth Seberger, Karl Krost, Marjorie Letz, Bob Youkey, and Dorothy Platt.

One of the outstanding events of the school year was the establishing of a Quill and Scroll Club, officers for which are: Carol Jean Martin, Ruth Seberger, Tom Adkins. The club keeps an eye peeled for those who can maneuver the English language in such a fashion as to produce good journalistic articles for the school paper.

On January 27, five members of the club met at the home of Mrs. Mracek and were initiated. Dark glasses, bow ties, and sleeve protectors proclaimed to the student body that these favored few were full-fledged members. After the formal initiation, the five new members sat down to the serious business of writing copy.

AS A GIRL RESERVE:

I will try

To face life squarely

To find and give the best

I will try to be

Gracious in manner

Impartial in judgment

Ready for service

Loyal to friends

Reaching toward the best.

Earnest in purpose

Seeing the beautiful

Eager for knowledge

Reverent to God

Victorious over self

Ever dependable

Sincere at all times

I will do my best to honor God, my country, and my community, to help other girls and to be in all ways a loyal, true member of the Girl Reserves.

Under the leadership of their sponsor, Miss Jones, and the work of Mrs. Spray, Miss Dice, Mrs. Seamonson, and Miss Sowash, the Girl Reserves became one of the outstanding organizations of the school this year. We also feel that much credit should be given to the Women's Council of the Club: Mrs. Lindley, Mrs. Erwin, Mrs. Lamson, Mrs. Adkins, and Mrs. Griesel. At the beginning of the year the new members were honored by a party given by the old members, during which time the following officers were installed: Doris Kaldahl, president; Charlotte Kaiser, Lois Woods, vice presidents; Dorothy Platt, treasurer; Ferne Purdy, secretary.

SOCIETY

Do you remember the Hallowe'en Carnival? Of course you do, and you remember how hard everyone worked for their king and queen. The king turned out to be Kenny Knight and the queen, Janet Place.

The next on our "Must See List" was the junior play, "Green Stockings". In spite of a few difficulties, the junior class put out a fine production.

Then there was the G. A. A. Dance. G. A. A. stands for Girls Athletic Association in case you don't know. The dance was given on November 18, and everyone had a "swell" time.

Not to be out-done, the seniors gave a dance on December 21, just after the Lowell game. It might have been the spirit of the season, but anyway it was quite a nice affair.

The next organizations to be bitten by the social bug were the Girl Reserves and Hi-Y clubs. The two clubs got together and, under the direction of Miss Jones and Mr. Baker, sponsored the "Hayseed Hop". With everything from wagon-wheels under foot to straw in your hair, it was a new and enjoyable event for everyone. It must be that everyone is in a dancing mood this year; we can't seem to get enough of it.

On January 22, the Presbyterian Church entertained the high school students at a chili supper.

The G. A. A. did a solo on February 4. They sponsored a dance after the Hobart game. The following night there was a freshman party held in the band building.

Monday, February 21, the Hi-Y feted the Girl Reserves to a banquet in the dining hall of the Presbyterian Church. Remembering Washington's Birthday, the Club decorated with his picture, cherry and hatchet cut-outs. The jollity of the singing will long be remembered.

While this is being written, plans are being made for three more dances, the Hi-Y and the sophomore class are each sponsoring one and the junior class is making plans for the junior prom. If this keeps up we may get our fill of dances yet, at least we'll hope so.

the 1990s, the number of people in the UK who are employed in the public sector has increased by 1.5 million, from 2.5 million in 1980 to 4 million in 1995. The public sector has also become an important employer of women, with 5.5 million women employed in the public sector in 1995, compared with 4.5 million in 1980.

There are a number of reasons why the public sector has become an important employer of women. One reason is that the public sector has a high proportion of women in its workforce. In 1995, 88% of the public sector workforce were women, compared with 78% in 1980.

Another reason is that the public sector has a high proportion of women in its senior management. In 1995, 33% of the public sector senior management were women, compared with 23% in 1980.

A third reason is that the public sector has a high proportion of women in its part-time workforce. In 1995, 45% of the public sector workforce were part-time, compared with 35% in 1980.
